

Words for Worship 5 February 2023

I stand amazed in the presence of Jesus the Nazarene,

and wonder how he could love me,
a sinner, condemned, unclean.

*How marvellous! How wonderful!
And my song shall ever be:
How marvellous! How wonderful is my Saviour's love for me!*

He took my sins and my sorrows,
and made them his very own;
and bore the burden to Calvary,
and suffered and died alone.

When with the ransomed in glory
his face I at last shall see,
'twill be my joy through the ages
to sing of his love for me.

Majesty, worship his majesty

unto Jesus be glory, honour and praise.
Majesty, kingdom authority
flows from his throne
unto his own,
His anthem raise.

So exalt, lift up on high
the name of Jesus.
Magnify, come glorify
Christ Jesus the King.
Majesty, worship his majesty
Jesus who died, now glorified
King of all Kings

To the river we are going

Bringing sins we cannot bear,
Come and cleanse us, Come forgive us,
Lord we need to meet you there.

In these waters healing mercy
Flows with freedom from despair.
We are going to that river,
Lord we need to meet you there.

Precious Jesus, we are ready
To surrender every care.
Take our hands now, lead us closer,
Lord we need to meet you there.

Come and join us in the river,
Come find life beyond compare.
He is calling, he is waiting,
Jesus longs to meet you there.

How deep the Father's love for us,

How vast beyond all measure
That he should give his only Son
To make a wretch his treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss;
The Father turns his face away,
As wounds which mar the chosen one
Bring many into glory.

Behold the man upon the cross,
My sin upon his shoulders;
Ashamed I hear my mocking voice
Call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held him there
Until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life –
I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything,
No gifts, no power, no wisdom;
But I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from his reward?
I cannot give an answer,
But this I know with all my heart,
His wounds have paid my ransom.

Baptised into the death of Christ
Raised with his resurrection,
Adopted by the Spirit's gift
As citizens of heaven.
We hear the call to follow him:
Lay down our lives, take up our cross,
And so declare to all the world
How deep the Father's love for us.
